Re: United States v. Michael Scronic, 17-mj-7351,
Modification of Pretrial Release

Dear Judge Smith:

At the initial appearance yesterday, your Honor released Mr. Scronic on bond, with one of the conditions of bond that he not have any contact with his investors outside of the presence of counsel.

At the time of the hearing, we were not aware that Mr. Scronic's mother may have been an investor. Mrs. Scronic would like to be able to visit with her son this weekend, but of course we do not Mr. Scronic to violate the terms of his pretrial release. We therefore respectfully request that, by "so ordering" this letter, the Court allow Mr. Scronic's mother to be able to have contact with Mr. Scronic outside of the presence of counsel. We have discussed this matter with Assistant United States Attorney James McMahon and he has no objection.

Thank you for the Court's consideration of this request.

Very truly yours,

Robert J. Anello
